Camp starts in Zagreb, capital of Croatia. During their stay in Zagreb participants will have organized city-sightseeing, as well as visit to the castles in the surroundings of Zagreb and to the Museum of Neanderthals. After three nights in Zagreb the trip continues to one of the most beautiful National Parks in Croatia "Plitvice lakes" (UNESCO World Heritage). From National park "Plitvice lakes" participants will travel to Split. Split is central city in southern Croatia, an incredible combination of history, Mediterranean and modern way of life, with lots of interesting things to see within it and in its surroundings. From Split visits to island of Hvar and island of Brač will be organized. On the island of Brač participants will visit "Zlatni Rat" or Golden Cape which is probably the most spectacular of Croatia's beaches. It is a vast, golden pebble beach with a unique shape, like a white tongue stretched into the sea, a paradise for windsurfing! From Split participants will travel to Zadar. City of Zadar is historical center of Dalmatia, surrounded by many islands. After Zadar participants will return to Zagreb. Departure from Zagreb is on Sunday, July 20th. Meetings with the members of local Rotary clubs will be organized in every major city, in the cities along the coast, swimming and visits to the beaches will be organized when and wherever possible. For the visits to the national parks participants should bring and wear comfortable shoes and clothes.
